

Brochure Accreditation

Welcome

The sole purpose of the APQSE is to ensure that the quality and standards of education is maintained throughout different universities and colleges. We provide accreditation to those colleges and universities that bear the international standards and quality of the education. If the colleges and universities are accredited from the APQSE, it is a trademark of the fact the quality of the education is up to international standards.

APQSE renders international accreditation to universities, colleges and other higher education institutions. The accreditation is also provided to the tertiary institutions such as technical and vocational training providers. The institutional accreditation confirms internal quality systems besides analyzing school or university's educational curricula and overall organization.

In order to receive accreditation from our end, it is important that the universities and colleges maintain a strict quality in the educational field. It is important that the staff of the universities and colleges are qualified enough for rendering better education to the students.

Mission

The prime mission for providing accreditation to the universities and the colleges is to ensure that the guidelines and the principles of the study or education matches in the international quality and standards. Our prime focus is to ensure that the students get all the deserving educational assistance and guidance that is necessary for building up a strong career.

APQSE Accreditation

Choosing APQSE (Accreditation High Quality Standard Education) accreditation means internationally recognized quality standard model for schools, colleges, online universities and training providers. Our goal is to bring independent support and information to the entire education community, including the higher education institutions. Our international accreditation is a well-defined and objective benchmarking service.

APQSE institutional verification programs for colleges, universities, and other higher education institutions are considered an unregulated validation of higher institutions within the constitutional freedom to evaluate organizations.

APPLYING FOR ACCREDITATION

The APQSE accreditation process is very simple and can be obtained in 30 days. After filling in the application form, it is necessary to write 4 "Reports Area ", one for each field of inquiry, except the website. Reports have to be self-certified through the appropriate form.
